Imagenomic's Portraiture is a powerful but user-friendly plug-in for Lightroom.Police are investigating alleged racist and homophobic graffiti on a church in Penrith as part of their ongoing investigation into social media posts. A swastika and homophobic slurs were spray painted at the front entrance of St Timothy's Church on Wednesdays. The front gate had been painted over at the time of a story on 3AW on Tuesday morning, but the words can still be seen in an image taken by a man who saw it and posted on Facebook. Loading There have been a number of malicious Facebook comments targeting the church on the site but police are now examining them to see if they are a crime. The church's pastor, who did not want to be named, said he was disgusted when he found out about the vandalism. "We do know that the perpetrators are know [sic], we're not sure of who they are," he said. "We're not speculating, what we're doing is in line with the protocol of the police. "You can see on the fence, it was the initial spray paint that was visible, then it was just pink paint which was removed because it was not a crime." Police have not identified a number of people who they want to speak to. The church is made up of a congregation of around 30 or 40 parishioners, most of whom are older people. The pastor said the community of Penrith was welcoming to outsiders. "The community is very welcoming to new migrants," he said. The church has been listed as a historic place. People have been urged to come forward if they have any information about the vandalism. They can contact Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.. In a stunningly ominous turn of events, Chinese telecom giant Z
