January 10, 2017 - I found the serial number / product key in my account page / management settings. When I entered the information to initialize the program, . NET failed, stating that the product key was not written correctly. I have tried different numbers and tried for several days with the same result. I also tried with the code in C# at this location. The code: string ssid = "your secret ssid"; string fsid = "your secret fsid"; using (NetworkStream stream = new NetworkStream(ssid, fsid)) { using (NetworkStream stream2 = new NetworkStream(stream)) { using (StreamWriter stw = new StreamWriter(stream2)) { stw.WriteLine(s); stw.Close(); stw.Flush
